HOLSTON CONFERENCE CLOSES ITS SESSIONS

Will Meet Next Year in Knoxville, Bluefield Withdrawing Its Invitation.

DR. DAVID SULLINS RETIRED

espite Protests of Aged Minister and Educator, He Is Placed on Superannuated List—Dr. Barrow Elected Editor of Church Paper.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] on Conterence, Methodist Episcopal nurch, South, closed its minety-first inval session to-day, and voted to eet next year at Broad Street Church, noxville, Tenn. Grace Church, Bluedd, W. Va., was a candidate for the ext meeting, but, after tying the vote the Knoxville last night, to-day ith the context invalue of the ext meeting, but, after tying the vote the Knoxville last night, to-day ith grace of the protests of Dr. David lilins, noted minister and educator, ow eighty-three years old, he was aced on the superannuated list. He as, however, honored with the position of associated president of Cennary College.

Dr. James A. Barrow, of Chattaloga, was elected editor of Midland ethodist, the church publication at ashville, to succeed Dr. T. S. Chuler, Bramwell, W. Va., resigned.

Dr. J. Stuart French, transferred om Nashville, was made pastor of ate Street Church, this city, while. J. A. Baylor, whom he succeeds, as made presiding elder of the ytheville District.

The reports of various committees day showed a much larger amount work mapped out for the year than that work mapped out for the year than that is a proper should be the places of the class of thirty-ree veterans placed on the super-muated list will have heavy responsibilities.

The following appointments were e following appointments were eigeneid District—J. B. Ward, P. E. field, Bland Street, E. E. Wiley; e Church, J. M. Carter. Bramwell Cooper, T. C. Schular. Big Sandy Marytown, W. A. McCormick, sup-Berwin, H. M. Boyd, supply, wood and Premier, Elbert W. er. Chattaroy, O. L. Simpson, and Twin Branch, Robert N. en. Eckman and Keystone, S. W. en. and English, J. B. Simpson, ins, Jones and Pageton, W. S. 18. Kimball, C. E. Painter. Mccell and Crumpler, Jesse F. Benton, berry and Coaldale, W. A. Gase, ily, Matewan, D. S. Lee, supply, bard, Carl H. Wright. Mora, James Vysor. Mullens, B. C. Wise, sup-North Fork and Crosier, Walter twood. Naugatuck, blank, Pine, Jesse W. Morris, Pond Creek, Smith, supply, Rock, C. N. Kent, Welch, T. J. Houts, William L. W. Pierce. Winding Gulf, nas E. Brooks. Missionary to ans, I. T. Cameron.

ANDIDATES APPEAL TO GATE CITY VOTERS

GATE CITY, VA., Ontober 20.—The courtroom was crowded to-day when R. Tate Irvine, candidate for Congress from the Ninth District, and Governor Henry C. Stuart discussed Congressman C. B. Slemp's record, and held to view the achievements of the Democratic administration. Mr. Irvine said that business was better under Wilson than at any time under Roosevelt or Taft, and each speaker showed how the great reforms are in the interest of all the people. Congressman Slemp, Mr. Mucy and others spoke on the street, and also had a good crowd. Following the Democrats, Senator J. H. Catron and Mr. Blankenship spoke for Mr. Rose, Progressive candidate.

Taylor—Taylor.

Taylor—Taylor.

LYNCHBURG, VA., October 20.—This afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Taylor, in Bedford County, their daughter, Miss Mary Ethel Taylor, was married to Vaughan Taylor, of Roanoke. Miss Sue Taylor, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and valve of the staylor, and H. B. Taylor, and M. B. Ta nly attendant; and H. B. Taylor, of city, a brother of the groom, was

The Trey O'Hearts

Romantic Tale by Louis Joseph Vance. Copyright, 1914, by Louis Joseph Vance.

By arrangement with the Universal Film Manufacturing Compeny, it is possible to read 'The Trey O' Hearts' in The Times-Dispatch and also to see it in pictures at the Superior Theatre. Synopsis of preceding chapters: Thi trey of hearts is the death sign used by Seneca Trine in the private sign used by Seneca Trine in the private sign used by thin through his daughter. Judith, against Ain through his daughter, Judith, against Ain and the triple of the accident that made him a cripple for the fall in love with him, but, scorned by him, he pursues the lovers implicably. Surviving many desperate attempts on his life. Alan learns that Rose is being taken West by her father, and had his friend, Tom Barcus, proposes to go on the same train, disquised as a colored porter. He follows and rescues Rose and Barcus, Judith, after wrecking the train on which the three are traveling, joins her ather's party, which is held up by a bandit, whom Trine employs to kill Alan, sending with him, Judith and Marrophat, one of his igents. But Judith describ the two men and akes the trail alone, followed by the bandit, who captures and binds her, but is killed

CHAPTER LXXIV .- ONWARD.

Two hundred feet, if one, he fell from the lip of the cliff. Then sudden-y the Thing that had been Hopi Jim Slade was checked in its headlong de-

Slade was checked in its headlong descent by the oustanding trunk of a tree, over which it remained, doubled up, limp, horrible. . . . The miniature landsilde that had been caused by his fall went on, settling gradually as the slope became less sheer. Only part of it, a double handful of pebbles, gained the bottom of the canyon.

Its muffled impact on the ground round his feet roused the man who had compassed the bandit's death from the ose he had unconsciously assumed on the instant of firing—the long-barreled Colts' .45 still poised and smoking in his grasp, his gaze st... directed upward, to the sun-gilded heights.

He stepped back, thrust the weapon into the holster strapped to his thigh, and, swinging about, snatched up a case containing binoculars.

Not before the glasses were adjusted to his vision did he find time to respond absently to the alarmed and insistent absently to the alarmed and insistent inquiries of his two companions, a man of his own age and a girl of some years less, who had been wakened from their sleep by the report of the revolver.

Now the latter plucked his sleeve, momentarily deflecting the glasses from the object which they were following so sedulously as it moved along the heights: a wildly running horse with a woman bound helpless upon its back, both sharply is silhouette against the burning blue.

"Alan" the girl demanded, "what is

"Alan!" the girl demanded, "what is it? Why did you fire? Why don't you answer me? What is it?"

"Judith," Alan replied tersely, again picking up with the glasses the runaway horse that fled so madly along the perilous and narrow track of the hill trail.

The name was echoed from two throats as Alan swung sharply and thrust the glasses into the hands of the

"Judith," he affirmed with a look of polgnant solicitude. "She's roped to the back of that crazy bronchoe—help-less! See for yourself: one false step—suppose a stone turns beneath its hoof—she'll be killed!"

While the girl focused her glasses when that speek that flew cates the

While the girl focused her glasses upon that speck that flew against the sky Alan turned to the two horses hobbled near-by, and seizing a saddle, threw it over the back of one.

At this the other man strode to his side, and dropping a detaining hand upon his arm, asked:

"What are you going to do?"

Alan shook the hand off and went on with his self-appointed task.

"Go after her, Tom, of course," he replied, "What else? That animal is crazy, I tell you—" replied. "What else? That animal is crazy, I tell you—"

"Even so," Tom Barcus argued, "you can't climb that hillside on horseback—and if you could, you'd be too late to catch up, much less prevent an accident—" 'I know it. But suppose it doesn't fall . . . You know what's beyond these hills—desert! And the girl is helpless, I tell you, bound hand and foot. Think of her being carried that way—all day, perhaps—face up to this bruttl sun! She'll go mad if something isn't done—" "You've gone mad yourself, already," Mr. Barcus contended darkly. "What's

Our judgment always is based upon comparison. If there wasn't any bad there couldn't be any good. We have to consider the two factors to secure a comparison and pass judgment. But when it comes to deciding just what a "grad time" is we have to interest.

The more pleasure we have the greater the difficulty we encounter in finding something to amuse and entertain us. It isn't anything unusual for some people to take a trip to Europe and they accept the voyage as a matter of fact journey. Others find greater enjoyment in a street car ride.

There is one principle that applies to everybody. Place yourself in a condieverybody. Place yourself in a condi-tion to have a "good time." Be physidon't find anything satisfying, and life becomes a bore, and merely a period of days or years through which they must struggle.

If you are mentally and physically fit it will not take something big or especially unusual to give you a "good time." You will find a great deal that is amusing and entertaining in ordinary things. Often those who have the least time for pleasure find more than the idlers, who are continually searchthe idlers, who are continually search-ing for it. The business woman can get more out of an hour in the evenwhole day.

Remember: "Good times" are not monopolized by the idlers who spend their lives looking for them.

Lillian Russell's Answers

Mrs. W.: If you are thin try sleeping ore. If you have eaten a dinner of more. If you have eaten a dinner of good, wholesome, nourishing food, and have taken a proper amount of outdoor exercise during the day, and have spent the evening in some pleasant, not spent the evening in some pleasant, not too stressful way, you ought to be able to sleep nine or ten hours and rise beautifully refreshed. Try taking a cup of hot mik before retiring and see if you do not find it soothing. Indulge yourself in little laziness. Above all, be calm and do not worry. Send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I shall send you the English dietary for gaining flesh.

I shall send you to gaining flesh.

H. J.: Yes, indeed, your hair will grow. I know people who have had their hair cut when they were much older than you are and it grew in beautifully. The only thing for you to be good care of your hair. do is to take good care of your hair. Brush your hair and scalp each night with a long bristled brush. As your hair is so short it will be an easy mat-ter to reach the scalp. This will move some of the dandruff. Massage your scalp, using a good hair tonic. You were indeed unfortunate to loose your lovely hair through the carelessnoss of another person. I am sorry. How-ever, I think if you use a good tonic each night your hair will soon grow. If gate night your hair will soon grow. If you can possibly get along without false hair I would advise you not to wear it. It injures the scalp to pile false hair on it. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall gladly send you formula for hair tonic with instructions for scalp massage.

Miss W. G. H.: Those who suffer from roughness and redness of the hands should wash them with the following it is melted mix in as much fine outmen Wet the hands and use as you would soap. A favorite perfume may

It is no wonder your face looks soiled all the time when you don't use soap on it. Water alone will not cleanse the face. Soap and water are absolute necessities and the face should he washed at least once a day with them. If you can't use soap on your face use a good cold cream. Cleanse the face with the cream, then cover the face with cloths dipped in warm water. This removes the cream from the pores. Blue the face with cold

Chubby: If you leave your bangs alone they will soon grow. Don't curl them on an iron, for curling keeps them short. Rub vaseline into the roots each night. This will help them to grow. For the spots on your face, I am afraid temperature of the property For the spots on your face, I am afraid I cannot help you. If they are sores, as you say they are, the best thing would be to consult a good physician regarding them. They may be caused from the blood and a good blood tonic may help you. Don't pinch them or irritate them in any way. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope, I shall be gald to send you bleach for tan and formula for removing superfluous hair.

Dr. Brady's Health Talks

Coddling.

The supreme purpose of hygiene and sanitation is to make life comfortable, and what the impulses of justice necessarily are.

Same Marton. We have the second of the property of the second of the property of the second of the property of eally and mentally fit to get all possible enjoyment and pleasure out of those things at your command during your pleasure-seeking hours.

The healthy mind and body never crave excesses. When ennul overtakes people and they become blase through an overdose of pleasure, they look for their "good time" in excesses. They don't find anything satisfying, and life becomes a bore, and merely a period Physical comfort should be the principal motive considered in the selection of clothing for children or for adults. If the clothing feels comfortable under all conditions it/is hygienic. Any one who wears more than physical comfort demands is coddling himself, and he is bound to pay the penalty in acute or chronic troubles of the respiratory mucous membrane.

Don't wear an article of clothing with the fancy that it will protect you from disease. Every ounce over and above what a common sense of comfort suggests merely increases comfort suggests merely increase your affinity for the much too common "cold" microbes.

Questions and Answers.

N. O. inquires: Please advise through the paper whether there is any remedy for a six-year-old child who stammers when talking.

Reply: Yes. Give the child vocal lessons, under the tutelage of a first-class teacher, and encourage him in singing and reading aloud at home. If there is any trouble with tonsils, or if the adenoid body is thickened sufficiently to interfere with free masal breathing, or if there is any nasal catarrh or tendency to frequent coryga ("cold in the head") the child should be treated for these troubles.

Questions and Answers.

neck.

Reply: I know of none that can be safely employed, excepting general bathing and exercise to regulate the function of the skin. Perhaps there is some underlying disturbance of health which you have neglected.

N. W. writes: I have catarrh of the nose. Would like to know whether salt sea air or a change of climate would cure it.
Reply: It would probably improve the condition, but 1 don't believe that alone would cure you, unless you change, at the same time, the habits of other contributing factors of your catarrh.

L. L. L. asks: Will you please tell me what causes chronic inflammation of the urethra and bladder? Can you suggest a remedy?

Reply: In elderly men an enlarged prostate gland is a common factor. Tuberculosis is another. The colon bacillus is another. Neisser's gonococcus is another. These are just a few of the possible causes. The remedy will depend upon the cause.

NEED OF COURTS IS MORE JUSTICE

(Continued From First Page.)

you will find that the two have the same foundations and that those foundations are more evident and conspicdations are more evident and conspic-uous in our day than they ever have been before. The opinion of the world is the mistress of the world; and the processes of international law, and the slow processes by which opinion works, ordinary rules of evidence, which has some times suggested to me that the ordinary rules of evidence had shown ter of the testimony, but the character of the witness. The motives are diswater. This removes the cream from the pores. Rinse the face with cold water and dry. If you will send me a stamped addreased envelope I shall esnd you formula for an excellent cleanssing cream.

Chubby: If you leave your bangs alone they will soon grow. Don't curl not colly the best found in the inprocepts, but the best found law in procepts, but the best found law in process which is elegity of character and of morals. That is the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and what we should be watchful of, is not so induced by the process of action.

"The disinterested course is always not only the light best found in the inprocepts, but the best found in the inprocess which is slowly working its will upon the world, and what we should be watchful of, is not so indicated by the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and what we should be watchful of, is not so indicated by the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and what we should be watchful of, is not so indicated by the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and what we should be watchful of, is not so indicated by the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and what we should be watchful of, is not so indicated by the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and in the process which is slowly working its will upon the world, and its will upon the world

LAW SHOULD GROW BY

"What I want to suggest to this as-sociation is whether we sufficiently apply these same ideas to the body of municipal law which we seek to ad-minister. The changing of law by stat-ute seems to me like mending a garment with a patch; whereas, law shoul grow by the life that is in it, not by the life that is outside of it. I should hate to think that the law did not derive its impulse from looking forward rather than from looking backward, or rather, that it did not derive its instruction from looking about and seeing

SOLUTION IS PROMISED FOR EXCHANGE PROBLEM

Sir George Paish Believes Balance of Trade Soon Will Swing to United States.

ENGLAND NOW HEAVY CREDITOR

Has More Than $200,000,000 Due Her, and Feels That She Wants Her Money - Short-Term Notes May Be Agreed Upon.

WASHINGTON, October 20 .- Prob oms of international exchange at pres ent worrying the Federal Reserve Board ent worrying the Federal Reserve Board soon will be solved; the balance of trade again will swing to the United States and the payment of immense sums of American gold to England be rendered unnecessary, in the opinion of Sir George Paish, special adviser to the English Chancellor of the Exchenger, now in Washington to discuss quer, now in Washington to discuss foreign exchange conditions with Treasury officials.

"At the present time," Sir George said to-day, "England, of course, feels that she wants money that is owed her. We have coming from the United States probably more than $200,000,000. States probably more than $200,000,000. The ordinary method of payment is by gold, but in the course of business, the balance usually is taken care of by purchases of American securities or by payment for your crops. In view of the present situation in your country, the payment of this large amount of gold now might prove inconvenient, and England was glad to respond to a proposal that the case be talked about and an effort made to find some way of meeting the difficulty.

"I feel sure a way will be discov-

"I feel sure a way will be discovered here by your Federal Reserve Board and the Secretary of the Treasury, and no doubt eventually the balance of trade will again be in your favor."

RESERVE BANK OFFICIALS IN CAPITAL FOR CONFERENCE Secretary McAdoo and the Reserve Board were occupied to-day with the directors and other officials of the twelve reserve banks who are in Wash-ington for a conference, and had no op-portunity for further consultation with Sir George. Mr. McAdoo is sugaring having too long to run. The English bankers are said to prefer sixty-day or ninety-day paper.

The Federal reserve banks probably will be in operation within thirty days, and then paper carrying their indorse-ment may be acceptable to English pecial to The Times-Dispatch. RALEIGH, N. C., October 20 .- Officials RALEIGH, N. C., October 20.—Officials of short line railroad companies conferred here to-day as to effects of the "long and short haul clause" of the Justice intrastate freight rate act.

SHORT LINE RAILROADS ARE SEEKING RELIEF

They conferred informally with the corporation Commission and all agreed that relief can come only through reveal of this clause by the Legislature peal of this clause by the Legislature and that these roads must loose heav-ily until given relief. A special legis-lative committee was provided to press for repeal as soon as the Legislature convenes in January

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 20.—Petitions are being circulated here equesting the judge of the Corporation Court to issue a call for a local option election if the sufficient number of signatures are obtained. In view of the result of the recent election on Statewide prohibition in Virginia, it is not believed that the wets will be able to carry the election even if it should

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC

Rub pain away with a small trial bottle of old "St. Jacob's Oil."

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rul Sir George. Mr. McAdoo is suffering from a slight attack of vervous indigestion and probably will not return to his desk for several days. It was said to-day the conference with Sir George, to which New York bankers are to be asked, probably will not be held.

It became apparent to-day that the Frederal Reserve Board probably would be redered. It became apparent to-day that the Federal Reserve Board probably would attempt to provide short-term interest-bearing paper or notes acceptable to the English government in place of actual gold. English bankers, it was said, recently refused to take the obligations of New York to the amount of $80,000, stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheuma-000, because they were regarded as tism away.—Advertisement.

Come, pick your Hat, while he picking is so good! We've all the correct blocks in Stiff and Soft Hats! There's a variety of styles in lifferent dimensions and variations to suit all faces.

Every Hat is a splendid value, for we sell no uncertain Hats, or Hats we cannot fully guarantee!

We go to the best manufacturers and get their best Hats. Stiff Hats, in blacks or fall colorings, $3 to $5.

Soft Hats, in a great variety of blocks and colors, $2, $3 to

Kirk-Parrish Co. THE OUTFITTERS,

627 East Broad.

Kichmond Lumber Yards

LUMBER AND LILLWORK. Woodward & Son., 4th and Sization Sta

Sydnor & Lundley Furniture Store In All Americas One on Grace St

Half-Price Sale

Odd Lengths --- Remnants --- Drop Patterns

Carpets, Rugs, Linoleum, Curtains, Etc.

The response to this one-week clearing sale proves two things that to us are very gratifying—

FIRST: Sydnor & Hundley have a general reputation for selling the best grade of merchandise. SECOND: the public believes implicitly in our newspaper advertisements. We are very glad to be able to offer these remarkable special values which are partially listed below. We believe that you will be so well pleased with your purchase that you will come here for all your furniture and homefurnishing needs.

The specials are going fast. We have had crowds of shoppers in the store at all hours every day this week. There are many splendid values left, but we suggest that you call as quickly as possible.

Odd Small Rugs

Many of excellent quality; size, 36x72 inches and up. Sale prices are half and less than half-

$1.00 up.

Odd Hall Runners

A number of desirable patterns, including beautiful Oriental designs. All sizes from 27 inches by 9 feet to 36 inches by 16 feet. Truly splendid values at half and less than half former prices.

$2.00 up.

Tapestry Carpets

Room, hall and stair patterns in Tapestry Carpets-a great variety of colors.

80c per yard values at.....40c 90c per yard values at......45c $1.00 per yard values at.....50c

Axminster Carpets

With and without borders-$1.50 per yard values for 75c.

Ingrain Carpets

Full one yard wide and strictly all

50c Per Yard.

Cotton Chain, 1 yd. wide, 25c per yd. Stairs to match, 20c and 35c per yd.

Matting Remnants Including Japanese Matting by the

At Special Prices. Linoleum (Short Lengths)

The most desirable printed and inlaid patterns, At half price-30c a yard up.

Lace Curtains

A genuine sacrifice; odd pairs, dropped patterns, etc. A large variety, including Lace Net, Nottingham, Cluny, Irish Point, etc.,

50c a pair up.

Window Shades Odd colors and sizes-most of them

5c each.

now and take advantage of the unusual money-savings in this remarkable sale.

We solicit charge accounts of responsible persons. Open a charge account

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY, Grace and 7th Streets